

Meetings, Events & Private Parties

THE REX

Our Venue

Welcome to the King of King Street...

Set in the heart of Spring Gardens and originally founded as the Midland Bank, The Rex Hotel enters a bold new chapter after a decade being known as Hotel Gotham. Designed by the iconic Sir Edwin Lutyens, this Grade II listed building has been meticulously restored to celebrate its heritage while delivering a refined, contemporary experience.

At The Rex, every event is designed to be noticed. From discreet gatherings to statement celebrations, our collection of distinctive spaces sets the stage for moments that feel effortless, elevated and unmistakably iconic. With tailored event packages, seasonal menus and crafted cocktails, The Rex offers a refined setting for occasions of every scale. Whether underground or in full view of the city, these are events worth capturing and moments destined to be remembered.

Our private spaces can host between 10 and 150 guests, offering bespoke food and drink menus from our award-winning AA Rosette kitchen and expert bar team, ensuring every event is executed with style, precision, and individuality.

TREASURY

AT THE REX

A Hidden
Underground
Venue in Former Bank Vaults

Treasury

Hidden within the former vaults of 100 King Street, Treasury is one of The Rex's most exclusive event spaces, where heritage is reimagined through a modern, refined lens. Once a place of safekeeping, it now houses something far more valuable: unforgettable experiences.

It is a space to unlock exceptional moments - private dining, conference, cinematic screenings or bespoke celebrations - each carefully guarded, expertly crafted and impossible to replicate. Discreet, versatile and indulgent, Treasury is where your most prized occasions are stored and remembered.

STRONGROOM

AT THE REX

Designed for
Those Who Value
Discretion

Strongroom

Set behind original vault doors, two levels beneath The Rex, The Strongroom is a private dining space designed for those who value discretion, indulgence and individuality. Once built to protect assets, it now safeguards something far more valuable: time well spent.

At its centre sits a full-size snooker table, ingeniously reimaged as a statement dining table, transforming from refined dining to playful competition in moments. A large screen allows for seamless presentations, private screenings or live sporting moments with complete seclusion from the outside world.

Perfect for corporate dinners or intimate celebrations of up to 20 guests.

PRIVATE HIRE

Strongroom hire fee from £1,000, in addition to a minimum food and beverage spend of £2,000.

Our Flavours

Our Restaurant received two AA rosettes within the first year and has maintained these accolades every year since. Our Executive Head Chef, Mr Bobby Szynaka, and his brigade serve a modern take on classic dishes with international influences, always incorporating creativity and, fresh local produce from the North-West. Therefore, depending on the date of your event menus may differ. Please ask your event extraordinaire for current menu options.

Our 3 course set menu starts from £55 per person however, 4, 5, and 6-course bespoke tasting menus with optional paired wines are also available upon request, to give your event that extra special touch.
